50 they decide to ditch school and sit in the park to shoot up. But they didn't know the cameras were on them.

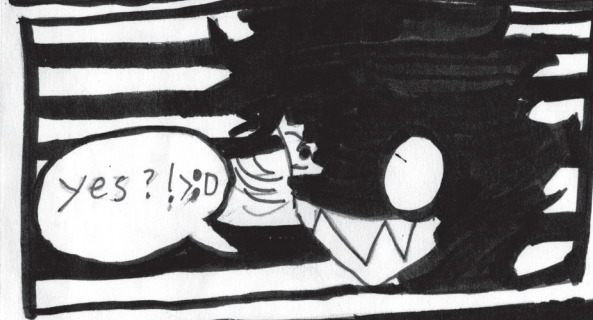

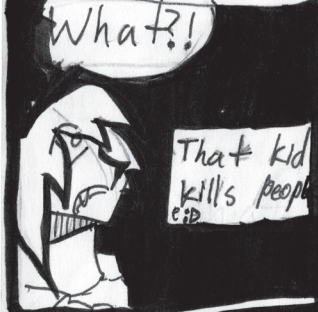

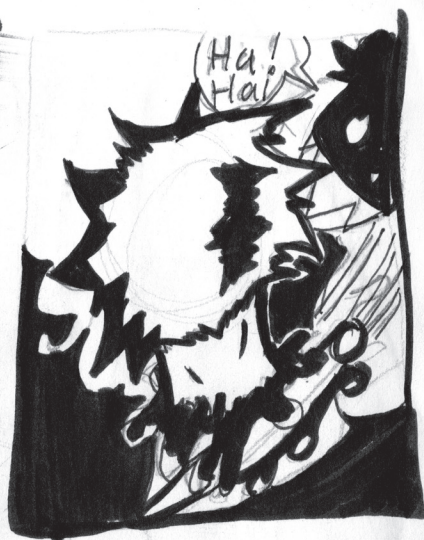

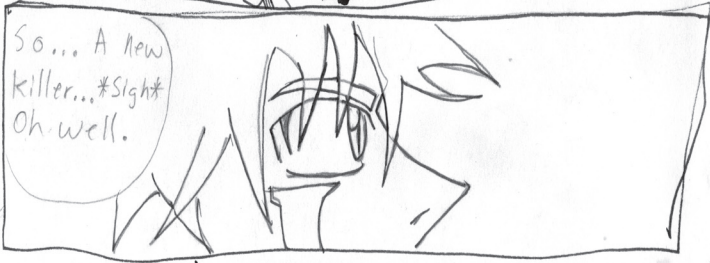

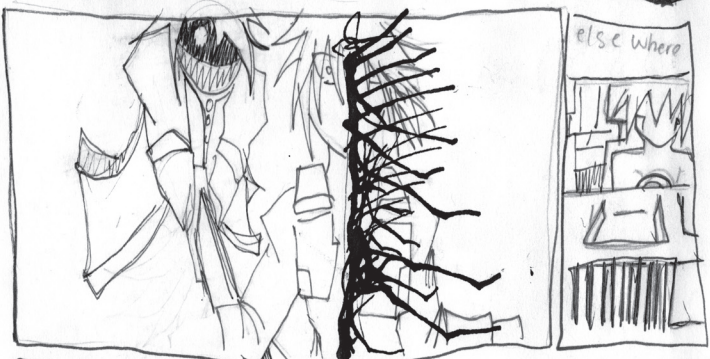

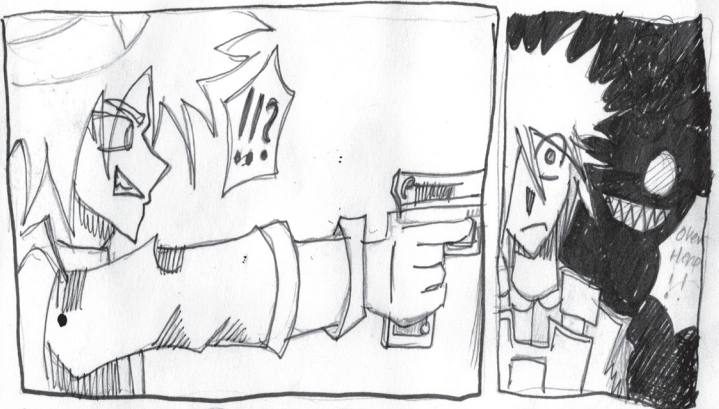

They both sentence 3 to 5 months in the juvenile system. My life is a great ball of fire!!

How do they expect me to STAY OUT OF PRISON...

It all started when I was at Food Mart I was in the same aisle as a random girl.

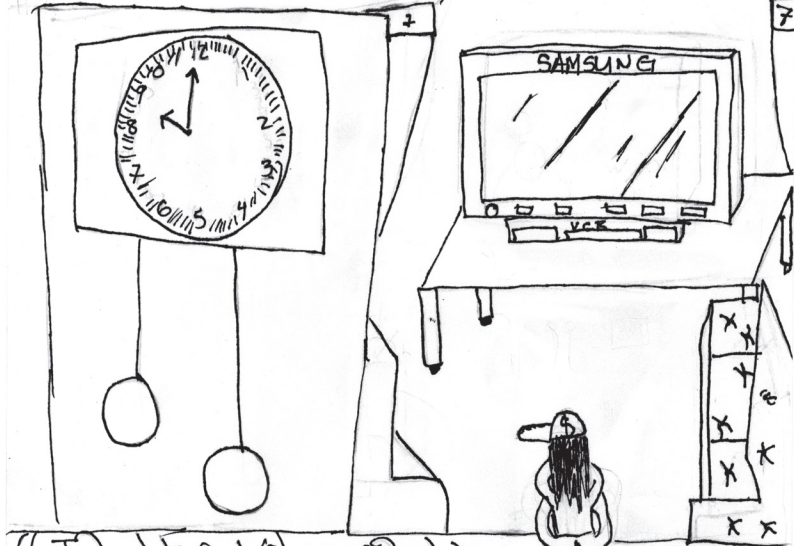

When I looked to my right I saw her slip a couple bags of chips in her back pack, then she went to the back where the juices were and got a 50¢ strawberry juice.

It seemed like I was helping her out because I kept looking at the camera and watching the store owner.

I left before her because I don't want to get involved

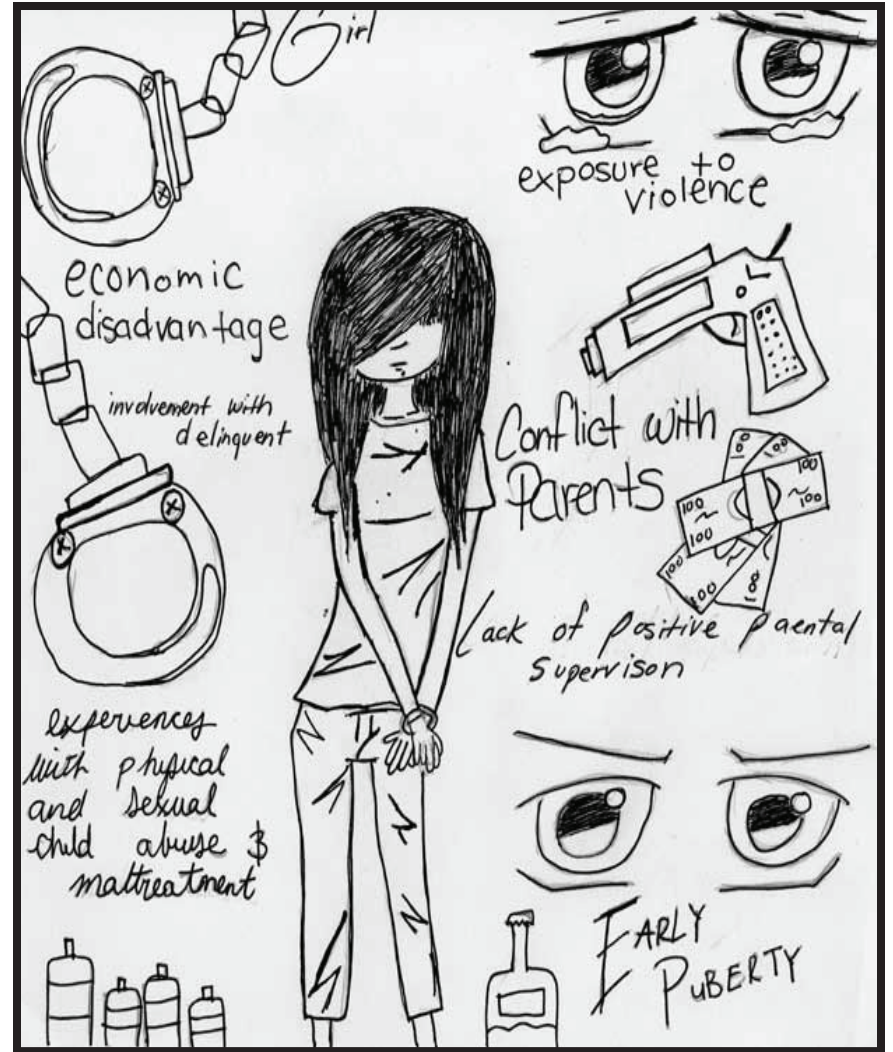

Four hours later when I was watching the WGN 9 news, I saw that same girl. I was so shocked to here the announcement.

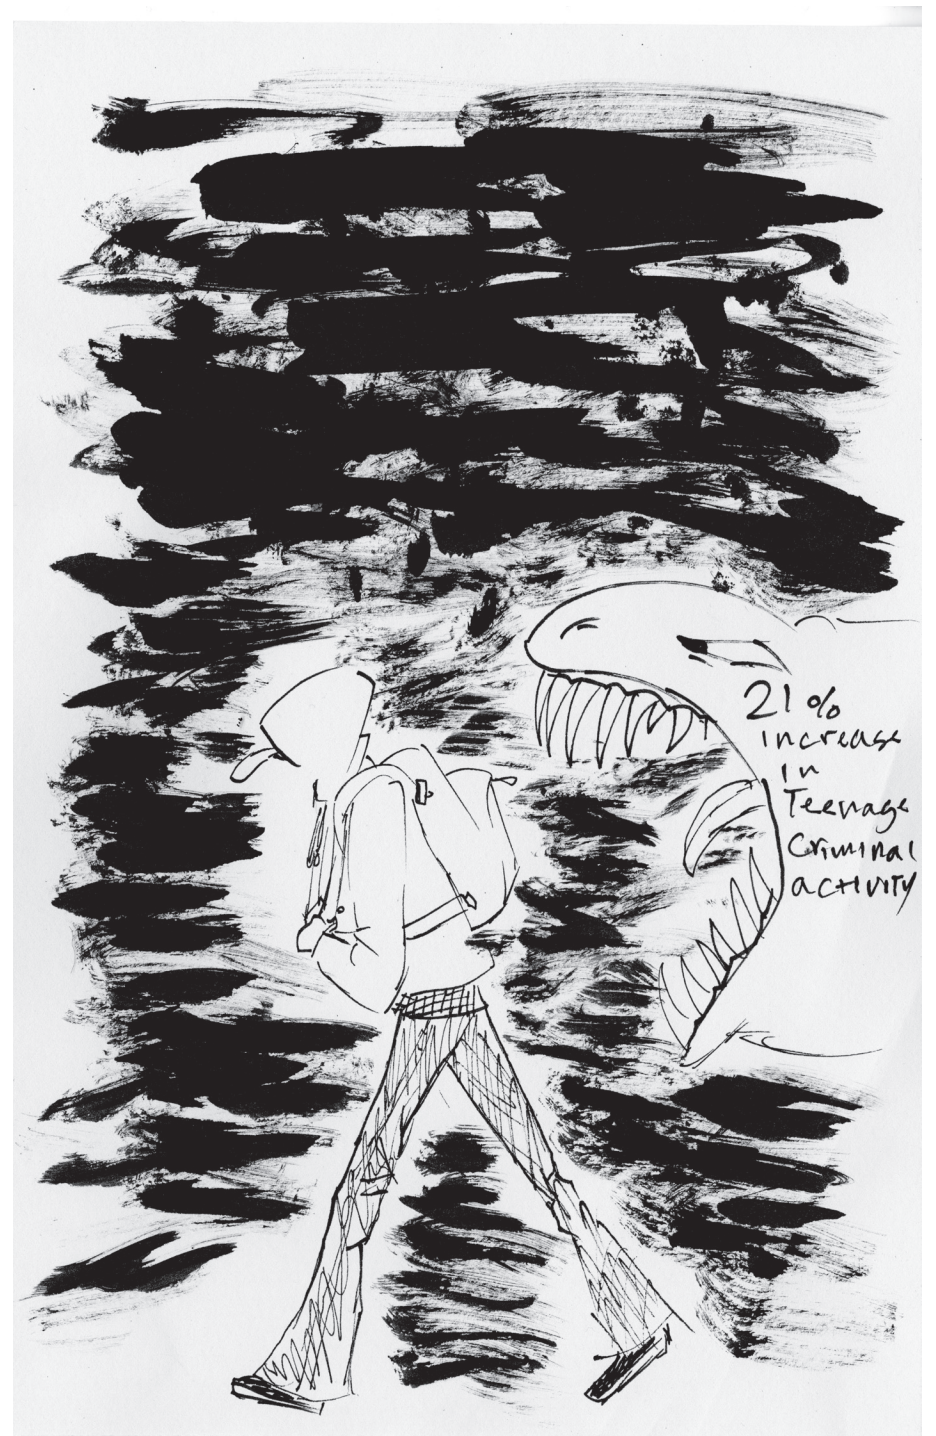

((If the value of the stolen property is $500 or less and it was not stolen directly from another person then the theft conviction is class (A) misdemeanor that means she get one year in jail.))

GIRLS IN THE SYSTEM

In 1967 when I was 15 I ran away from home. I was caught a few days later, and I was arrested and tried in court because running away is an offense. I was sentenced with an indefinite release date.

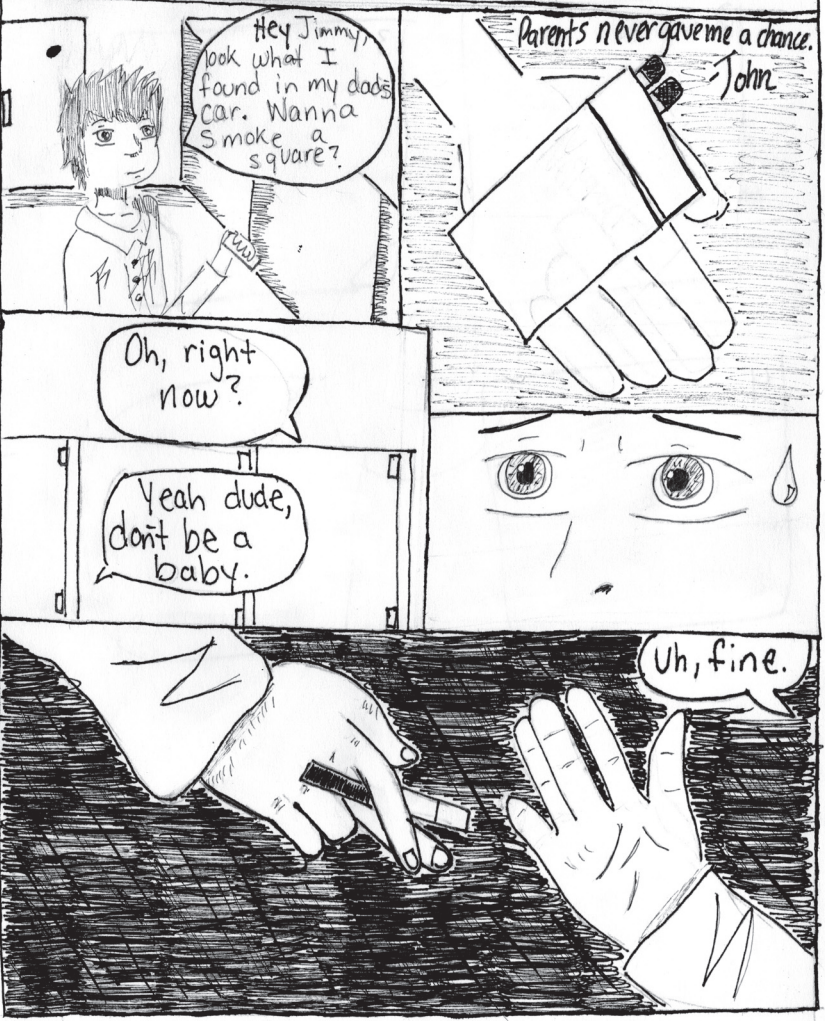

I was released 43 years after my arrest. Was running away really a good reason to waist my whole life?

Please don't hurt me mister !!

Keep your mouth shut you little piece of stuff.

You son of a...

Smirk!
Now, my duty is finished here.

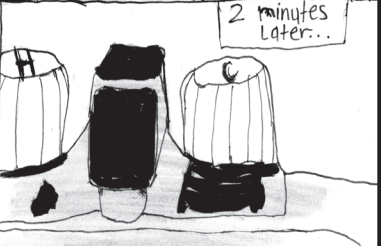

Let me clean up and go to the store.

This is John Williams He is 16 and a mass murderer.

He kills his young victims silently ...

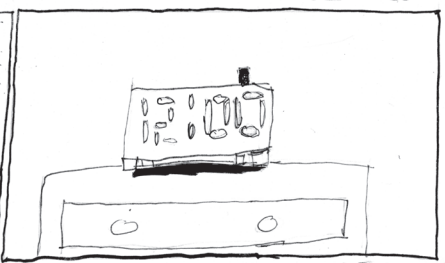

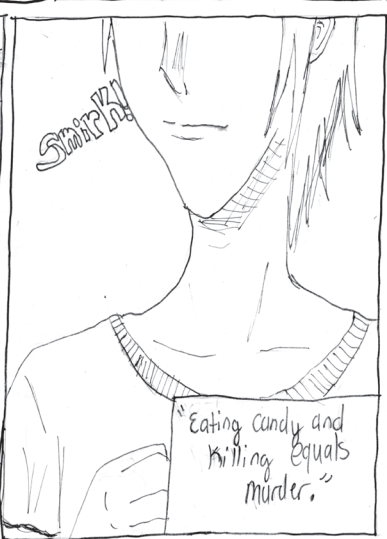

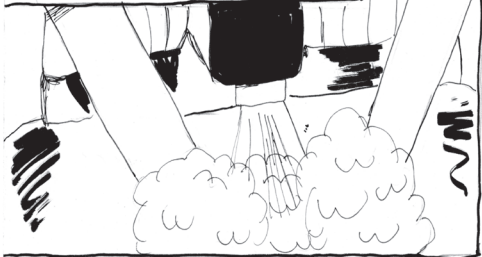

They're mostly people who he knows

2 minutes later...

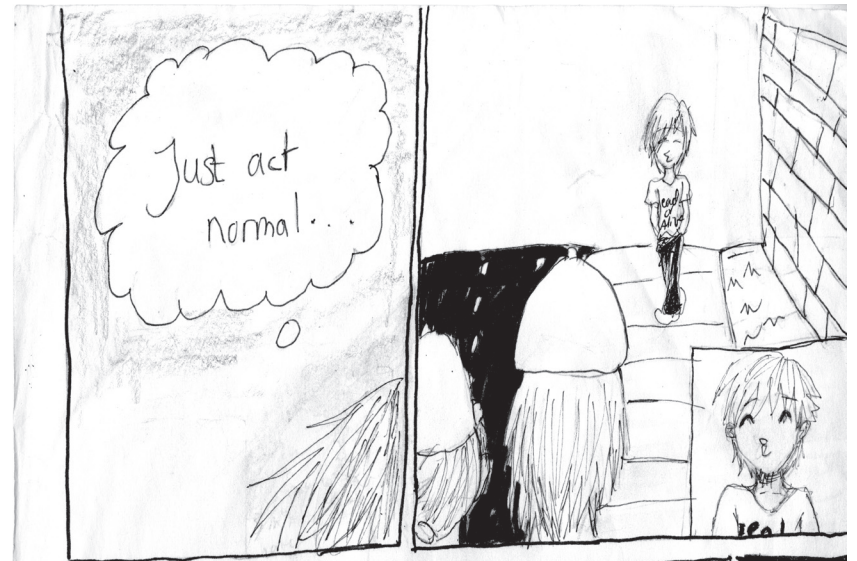

He doesn't have a particular Plan when killing his victims.

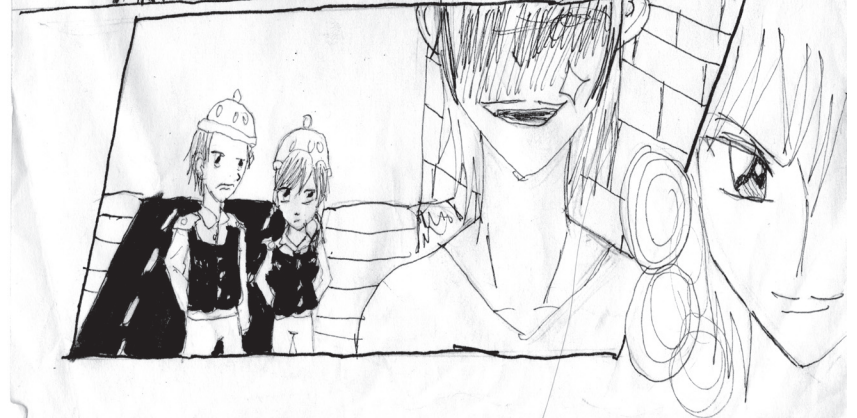

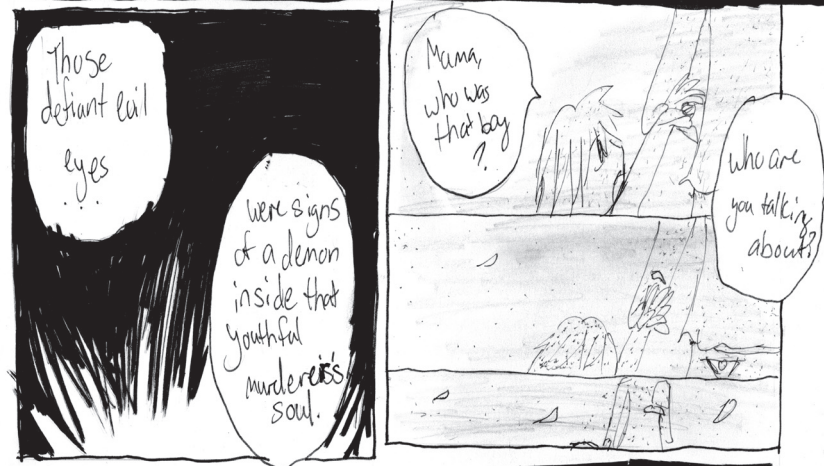

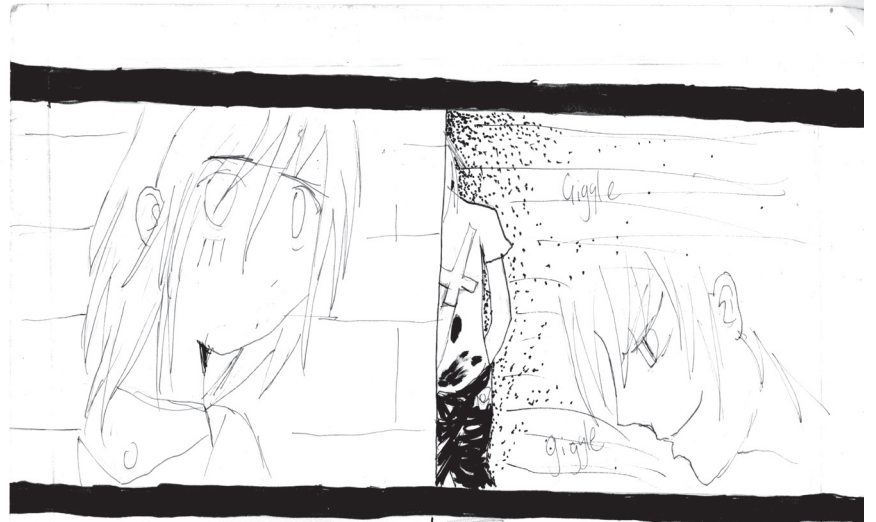

Even though hes one of the top mass juvenile murderers...

His goal is to not be guilty on the crimes he had done. this is too much on man!!

They will never know

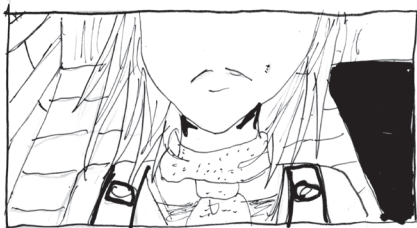

Ten years has passed by since that incident

And everyday before & after school!

I walk to the spot where that horrible creature held his most gruesome killing.

because I look up and I always see that man!

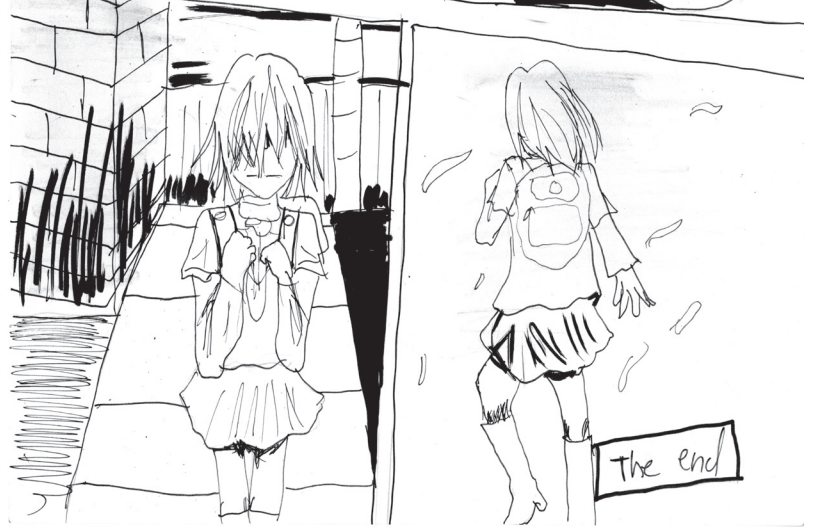

But at times ...

My heart would skip a beat ...

And he would stare at me

With those defiant eyes.

The end
